The storm that ended yesterday morning left Reno about a foot of snow; hardly as much fell on the mountains. Quite a number of cutters were seen on the streets to-day, but the snow was soft and the sleighing "rocky."

There seems to be a misunderstanding by many regarding the Wheelmen's ball on Friday, the 19th inst. It is not to be a full dress affair, but is supposed to be a swell, up-to-date dance, where no pains will be spared to satisfy everyone's desires and have them convey the impression that the Wheelmen know how to conduct a dance. The decorations are nearly completed. The fancy drill begins at 8:45 sharp.

THE NEVADA LEGISLATURE

THE EIGHTEENTH SESSION—THIRTY-FIRST DAY.

University Deficiency Bill Passed, But the Equal Suffrage Resolution Defeated.

CARSON, February 17, 1897.

A heavy snow storm prevailed all of last night, and when morning came nearly fourteen inches in depth of the beautiful met the eyes of the early risers. Had the conditions been other than on the eve of a great glove contest there is little doubt but what the newspaper correspondents, as well as the many artists on the ground would have gone into ecstasies over the winter dress on every hand. The prospects of this morning, however, did not create much enthusiasm nor romantic thoughts among the strangers. They looked weary and disgruntled, and the question was frequently asked, "Isn't this storm unusual, and how long is it likely to last?" Of course the natives did not lose an opportunity to discourage the tentfeet by replying "that winter had just commenced and a blockade was likely to occur, and that the snow often reached a depth of six feet." These little shots, while doubted, did not set well, and it was easy to be seen that they grated on the ears of the new comers. One man told a Corbett follower this morning that it was quite likely that the champion as well as Fitzsimmons would have to make their runs over the country on snow shoes in order to get the necessary exercise. It was also suggested that Carson had several experts in this line that would give the fighters a fifteen or twenty mile run just for exercise at any time. It is evident that the gang don't like the snow, but it is one of the things in this country that even the influence of pugilists and their followers cannot regulate.

Some excitement took place at the Arlington in connection with some side bets on the fight. Frank Golden of Carson made the assertion that he believed Fitzsimmons would win the mill. Corbett heard him and offered him the odds of two to one for any amount up to $10,000. A man offered to put up $50, all that he had, and Corbett covered it with $100. Shortly after Frank Golden took a bet of $300 on the same terms. The situation then developed into a kind of bluff game, and some hot blood was shown.

Various rumors are afloat, and some of them are founded upon what seems to be fact, and Carsonites are beginning to "catch on" to the coarse work of their visitors. The following will serve to show what some of them are: A proposition is on foot to reduce the gambling license to comparatively a nominal sum, and it is said that a bill is now prepared and the members are being canvassed with a view of shoving the measure through in a rush. Of course the reason of this is too apparent to be explained. All kinds of cinch games will be on the ground under the control of strangers, and the men who have paid the high license for conducting games of chance will have the satisfaction of knowing that special provision has been made in the interest of strangers. Another project that is looming up is the opening of pool rooms by Harry Corbett in a large brick building here. In addition to this it is reported that he will conduct a bar and other attractions, not likely in the interest of Carson or the State, but for his own profit. His place will doubtless be the headquarters of the Corbett coterie, and the resident businessmen in a similar business, will suffer accordingly.

The Examiner correspondent undertook to criticize Reno's position on the fight, and in order to touch what he believed was a tender spot, intimated that the University appropriation might be cut owing to the feeling that Reno exhibited regarding the $1,000 license, etc. As an illustration of the effect his opinion had the appropriation for the deficiency for the University passed the Assembly by almost an unanimous vote. Such are some of the bluffs that are being pushed by those who have been residents of Nevada for two or three days, and after using the State as a convenience will get out as soon as possible. It might be added that if any more schemes or bluffs are attempted to cast a slur at Reno, a test of the constitutionality of the law is not improbable. Discretion, even among prize fighters and their backers on, is sometimes the better part of valor. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

The report that Washoe county would take action regarding the shipment of tramps from this point stirred matters up here this morning and created considerable talk. It is doubtful whether the experiment will be tried again or not, as it was discovered that it might be a costly experience. Assembly bills 23 and 45, providing for the University deficiencies were considered to-day. The latter passed, but the former was postponed over until to-morrow.

The little unpleasantness at yesterday's session was smoothed over to-day by permitting Mr. Norcross to move for a reconsideration of the vote by which it was lost. During the afternoon session Mr. Norcross called the resolution up, and he made a strong plea for the adoption, but a roll call resulted in a vote of 15 to 15, which defeated the measure.

A Few Rambling Thoughts by "Brother" McLaughlin.

A snow storm of the midwinter style visited Carson and vicinity yesterday afternoon and continued to pay its best respects until after midnight. Visitors from our neighboring State were delighted to see the beautiful snow, but when Sam Davis remarked that it might continue until the last of March they were not so enthusiastic in their admiration of crystallized vapor.

Then some knowing one intimated that Sam was not always on the line of authenticity. The weather to-day overhead is all that can be desired.

St. Perkins' Poughdown band is here. They passed the Capitol this morning playing a medley, which attracted the attention of the Assemblymen from the Legislature tread mill to the clock.

They evidently were anxious to take a recess. Music has an enlivening effect, and the discussion that has been going on for the past few days upon the woman suffrage question has been wearisome and a recess before the usual hour would have been permissible.

Carson, February 17, 1897.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamonddale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at River Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

Regular size, 50 cts. and 75 cts.

CATTLE TRANSPORTATION.

Restrictions imposed by the Department of Agriculture.

Governor Sadler has received a pamphlet from the Department of Agriculture relating to the restrictions on cattle transportation in accordance with section 7 of an act of Congress approved May 29, 1884. The department states that a contagious and infectious disease known as epizootic or Southern fever exists among cattle in all of California, and from the 15th day of February to the 15th day of November no cattle are to be transported from the interdicted area except by rail for immediate slaughter, and when so transported the following regulations must be observed:

1. When any cattle in course of transportation from said area are unloaded above, north, east or west of this line to be fed or watered, the places where said cattle are to be fed or watered shall be kept apart and no other cattle are to be admitted thereto.

2. On unloading said cattle at their points of destination, pens, sufficiently isolated, shall be set apart to receive them, and no other cattle shall be admitted to said pens; and the regulations relating to the movement of cattle from said area, prescribed by the sanitary officers of the State where unloaded, shall be carefully observed.

The cars that have carried said stock shall be cleansed and disinfected as soon as possible after unloading and before they are again used to transport, store or shelter animals or merchandise.

3. All cars carrying cattle from said area shall bear placards stating that said cars contain Southern cattle, and each of the way bills of said shipment shall have a note upon its face with a similar statement. Whenever any cattle have come from said area and shall be reshipped from any point at which they have been unloaded to other points of destination, the cars carrying said animals shall bear similar placards with like statements, and the way bills be so stamped. At whatever point these cattle are unloaded they must be placed in separate pens, to which no other cattle shall be admitted.

4. The cars and boats used to transport such animals, the chutes, alley ways and pens used during transportation, and at points of destination, shall be disinfected in the following manner:

(a) Remove all litter and manure. This litter and manure may be disinfected by mixing it with lime or saturating it with a 5 per cent solution of carbolic acid, or, if not disinfected, it may be stored where no cattle can come into contact with it until after November 15th.

(b) Wash the cars and the feeding and watering troughs with water until clean.

(c) Saturate the walls and floors of the cars and fencing, troughs and chutes of the pens with a solution made by dissolving four ounces of chloride of lime to each gallon of water. Or disinfect the cars with a jet of steam under pressure of not less than fifty pounds to the square inch.

BURTON COMEDY COMPANY.

A Large Audience Entertained Last Evening.

"The music of the orchestra without any other attraction is worth more than the price of admission," was the general verdict of the large audience at Piper's Opera House last evening where the pleasing farce-comedy, "St. Perkins," was presented in a highly entertaining manner. In presenting the character of the Yankee of fiction Sam Burton has no peer. He was ably seconded by Miss Lillie Coleman and the entire company in producing a realistic picture of New England rural life a half century ago. The play is interlarded with singing and catchy musical gems artistically rendered by the Pughtown band.—Virginia Chronicle.

The troupe will give a street parade at noon to-day and a performance this evening.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal biliousness. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness, yield to Electric Bitters. Fifty cents and $1 per bottle at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

For Good Books. A number of the ladies of Reno have kindly volunteered to give a series of readings at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms for the purpose of securing books for the library. These readings will be given every Wednesday evening until notice. The price of admission (ten cents) is small, and all who are interested in this work should attend. The library committee will be pleased to receive donations of good books for the library. Anyone wishing to contribute in this way is requested to confer with the Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The Skating rink. The skating rink at the Pavilion has changed hands. O. P. Ferrel has assumed full control, and it will be open every afternoon and evening, Wednesday and Friday afternoons for ladies only. Saturday nights a dance will be conducted in connection with the skating. Good order will be maintained and a good time is assured all who attend. New features will be introduced frequently. On the 15th of February catching a greased pig will be the event. On the 25th a grand carnival and dance will be held. 130ml.
